DENMAN DIES IN LEXINGTON HOSPITAL THURSDAY MORNING

Prominent Nicholasville Merchant Shot By School Head Dies After Lingering Several Days.

Arthur Denman, prominent young Nicholasville merchant, who it is alleged, was shot last Thursday night by Prof. T. B. Threlkeld, as the result of a quarrel between his brother, William Denman and professor Threlkeld over the sale of football tickets, died in Lexington Thursday morning at 7:30 o'clock at the Good Samaritan Hospital, where he was taken immediately for treatment.

Mr. Denman had been shot twice in the abdomen, and the intestines were penetrated in seven different places by the bullets. Although for a while he showed signs of recovering, the wounds were so severe that he succumbed.

Professor Threlkeld, who was placed under $3,000 bond immediately after the shooting on the charge of shooting with intent to kill, gave himself up to Sheriff S. B. Muir as soon as he heard of Denman's death.

A quarrel, in which Denman was mortally wounded arose over the refusal of the Denman brothers to buy football tickets to games staged by the Threlkeld Select School for Boys, of which Professor Threlkeld is head. Professor Threlkeld, his son, Logan Threlkeld came in the Denman store, and offered to settle all difficulties.

ARRANGEMENTS COMPLETED FOR ADVERTISING THE FAIR

Advertising Committee of the Corn and Tobacco Fair Makes Plans For Their Extensive Campaign.

A very interesting meeting of the Advertising committee of the 1920 Corn and Tobacco Fair was held at the Chamber of Commerce on Wednesday evening and members of that committee completed arrangements for an extensive advertising campaign that will announce the big fair and its date to the people in this and all nearby counties.

Besides placing orders for large posters, lithographs and cards to be scattered throughout the whole Burley belt, the committee laid plans for advertising the fair in all of the weekly newspapers in all of the adjoining counties. The activity of this advertising committee shows conclusively that the fair and its date and details will be made known to everyone in this district and assures a record breaking attendance.

As soon as the lithographs arrive members of the committee will personally see to their proper distribution and on this advertising trip will also make contracts for the advertising in the various county newspapers.

The Flemingsburg Times-Democrat says: "Telegrams received here Tuesday announced the death of Mrs. Clarence L. Cord, at her home in Columbus, O. The remains will be brought here for burial, arriving on the 10:45 train Thursday morning, and services will be held at the cemetery. The many friends of the bereaved husband in this, his old home, extend to him their deep sympathy in his loss."

SINGLE POLICY FOR NORTH AND SOUTH URGED BY HARDING

Republican Candidate For Presidency Invades the "Solid South" and Receives Applause.

Chattanooga, Tenn., Oct. 13.—To the voters of the Democratic South Senator Harding tonight addressed an appeal for earnest consideration of Republican principles and gave a promise that Republican success in the election would mean "the same policy of helpful protection to all American production, North or South."

In a speech at the Auditorium here the Republican Presidential nominee suggested "diversified politics" as the thing required to remove the last trace of sectional misunderstanding, and said that his party had no policy for one section that it did not preach for all sections alike.

The Democratic party he attacked for its conduct of affairs both at home and abroad. President Wilson, he said, repeatedly had dictated to Congress, even at the expense of violating pledges of his own party platform, and finally had attempted to force acceptance of the League of Nations covenant by depriving the Senate of its own constitutional powers.

Arriving here early in the forenoon, the candidate spent virtually the whole day in an automobile tour of the section about Chattanooga made historic by the Civil War battles. An ambiguity in the federal constitution, he said in his speech, had been responsible for the war, and voiced a hope that no similar catastrophe would be courted by accepting a league covenant "containing a secret of ambiguity."

"Looking back no win the concord of union," he said, "we note no difference in patriotic love of country, North or South, rather a misunderstanding as to the meaning of it. It little matters now about grievances, about early difference, about the embittered disappointments."

"The supreme fact is that we have rebelled, that we are reunited."

"All that North and South ever needed was understanding with one another. We have that understanding now."

"We are not wholly of one mind in our party devotion, but it will be a grand day for America when our partisan differences are buried in the concord of new understanding. If Republican policies are good for the North they deserve the earnest consideration of the South."

"Highways of steel, improved roads and avenues of exchanging commerce have intersected the old Mason and Dixon line until it is only historical memory. Your commerce is American commerce; your industry is American industry."

MISS FRANCES FARNSWORTH BRIDE OF MEMPHIS MAN

The Memphis Commercial-Appeal says:

"The marriage of Miss Frances Shirley Farnsworth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Allen Farnsworth, to Mr. Glover Lawrence Anderson was quietly solemnized on Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, 1124 Dorothy place, the Rev. W. L. Norris, pastor of Calvary Baptist church, officiating."

"The bride wore a tailored suit of taupe broadcloth with hat to match and a corsage bouquet of bride roses and valley lilies."

"Mr. and Mrs. Anderson are at home at 1323 Tuttle avenue."

The bride is the granddaughter of Judge and Mrs. John L. Whitaker. She had visited here on many occasions and has many warm friends who extend heartiest congratulations.

INSPECTORS GOING OVER WILLIAMS' BOOKS.

In regard to the confessed swindle of Mayor Verne Williams, of Ripley, the Ripley Bee today says:

"Mr. F. F. McGuire, chief inspector came here Wednesday morning with an accountant, Mr. B. A. DeVine. The directors were called together and the matter laid before them. They at once put the affairs of the company in their hands, since which time they have been at work on the books without making much headway. No one can at this time tell what the shortage will be as the books are in very much of a muddle, some of them have not yet been found. Mr. A. M. Smith, representing the company in which Williams was bonded was here Monday looking after their interests."

BAPTIST PRAYER MEETING IS HELD TONIGHT.

The regular mid-week prayer service at the Baptist church will be held this evening at 7 o'clock in charge of the pastor, Rev. John A. Davis. The study in the Acts of the Apostles continues and interest in the study is growing with each service. The public is cordially invited.

HIGH CLASS MUSICAL COMEDY ATTRACTS MANY

"The Rainbow Girl" Is Said To Be Show of the Higher Type With Excellent Cast.

Gleason and Block's "The Rainbow Girl," a musical comedy founded on a comedy by Jerome K. Jerome, will be the offering at the Washington Theater Thursday, October 21st.

It was Renold Wolf who wrote the book and lyrics and Louis A. Hirsch who wrote the music. The sets, four in number, were painted by Joseph Urban.

Though claim is made that "The Rainbow Girl" is distinctly a musical show, presenting over twenty musical numbers with a numerous girl chorus, its sponsors state that it sets a new style in musical comedy entertainment equal to that seen in straight drama. Katherine Shaw has the prima donna or title role. Sam Sidman is the principal funmaker. He plays the character of a bishop, or a "bish," which is the best thing he has done. An English butler is introduced by Frank Farlington. He had played every comedy role in Shakespeare and may be counted on for a clever characterization. George Lydecker plays opposite Miss Shaw and Gene Carlson has a part which gives her personality full play. Others in the cast are Joseph Daniels, Jane Burby, Margaret Merriman, John Ellis, Fred Solomon and the New Amsterdam Theater, New York, cast.

NOTED DEMOCRAT BOLTS COX.

Mr. Peter Cooper Hewitt, the well-known inventor, son of the late Mayor of New York, Abraham S. Hewitt, and like his father, a lifelong Democrat, has announced his intention of voting for Senator Harding. Mr. Hewitt is opposed to the League of Nations which President Wilson has been attempting to foist upon this country. Mr. Hewitt has not announced his abandonment of the Democratic party, but will not support it in its advocacy of the Wilsonian policies. Mr. Wilson is the milestone which is dragging his party down to defeat, and Candidate Cox has shown himself to be simply a "Me too."

METHODIST PRAYER MEETING.

CLOTHING IS TO BE COLLECTED FOR POLISH RELIEF

People of Maysville and Mason County Asked To Help the Suffering of Poland — Pastors To Present Cause.

An appeal for worn and cast-off clothing for the relief of Polish sufferers is to be made to the people of Maysville. The First M. E. Church, South, has undertaken the task of collecting clothing for this destitute people. Miss Anna Shackelford has been appointed chairman of the soliciting committee and Mrs. John Clark, Jr., chairman of the collecting committee.

The old State National Bank building will be used as headquarters, Sunday, October 17, has been set aside as Polish Sunday, and the two weeks following that will be devoted to the campaign for aid to the destitute of Poland will be made.

This is not a campaign for money, however that is acceptable, but a campaign for old clothing. Articles needed are any character of warm clothing for men, children or babies, foot wear, hats, household supplies, soap, hospital supplies and even remnants of clothing, scrub-rags, etc.

The suffering in Poland, torn by six constant years of warfare will be untold, this winter, it is said. It is urged that every article possible to cover naked, barefoot, starved men, women and children be collected and shipped to Poland before the bitter cold of winter causes indescribable misery and death.

Anyone who has worn clothing or any articles to be given away is asked to communicate with Miss Shackelford.

Mr. M. O. Sullivan, better known as "Uncle Mike," died at his home in the East-End of the city this afternoon after a long illness of a complication incident to advanced age. ROSE'S TRIAL FOR MURDER IS POSTPONED

Slayer of E. L. March Did Not Go On Trial Wednesday—Case Continued Until Monday.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 14.—A crowd that filled the Circuit Court room was disappointed Wednesday when an order was entered by Circuit Judge Charles Kerr reassigning the case of George Rose, Constable, who shot and killed E. L. March last Thursday, to Monday, October 18.

When the case was called W. C. G. Hobbs and Harry Miller, representing Rose, announced ready. Dave C. Hunter, acting as Commonwealth's Attorney during the illness of Colonel John R. Allen, asked the court to pass the case declaring he did not want to try the case for personal reasons.

Rose seemed unaffected by the large crowd in the courtroom and apparently was indifferent as to whether his case was tried. He is at liberty on $5,000 bond.

Rose shot and killed March, Lexington merchant, as he stood in the yard of the Britling apartment. The shooting is said to have been the outcome of indictment of March for an alleged attack on Rose's fourteen-year-old granddaughter.

WITNESSES ABSENT IN CROWELL CASE.

The Cincinnati Commercial Tribune says:

"When the case of Dr. W. C. Crowell, dentist, of Maysville, Ky., was called yesterday morning before United States Commissioner Oscar H. Roetken, the discovery was made that two important witnesses for the government, a white man and a negro, were absent."

"Dr. Crowell is charged with violating the prohibition laws in the sale of two quarts of 'moonshine' whiskey. The preliminary hearing was continued until Saturday morning. Prohibition Officer Edward Fitzgerald, who made the arrest, left in search for his witnesses."

GATHERING FACTS HERE TO ESTABLISH RIGHT TO FORTUNE

Assistant Attorney General of Indiana Here To Learn Family Connection of Woman Claiming To Be Heir To Large Fortune of Old Man.

Hon. A. L. Bingham, of Indianapolis, Ind., assistant Attorney General of the state of Indiana is in Maysville endeavoring to establish the right of a Mrs. Whitt, of his state, to a large fortune left by an old man some several years ago.

It seems as though the old man died without immediate relatives leaving a fortune of about $75,000. To find the relatives to whom the estate should revert was given to the state. Several laid claim to relationship with the old man but none were able to establish their rights so thoroughly as a Mrs. Whitt, who claimed that in 1890 her folks lived in Mason county a short distance from Maysville.

Although Mr. Bingham has made a very careful search throughout the county to learn whether or not the woman had relatives here, he has been unable to find persons who know anything about her or her folks in this section.

BIG MEN ENDORSE NEW SCHOOL LAW

Democratic Senator and Republican Leader In Accord
On Welfare of Children

Senator J. C. W. Beckman was seen some time ago by your staff representative who asked the Senator for his views upon the new County School Administration Law. The Senator's very hopeful statement is given in full below:

"While I have not had a chance to read the entire school law passed by the last session of the Legislature, I have been informed of its general provisions and am very hopeful that it will accomplish great good for our county schools and enable them to make greater progress than ever."

"It is hardly necessary for me to say how deeply interested I am in the school work in our State, for during the time I was a member of the Legislature, and Governor, I always gave especial consideration to the progress and development of our school system. It is a great work. The rural schools have not, of course, had the advantages of the city schools, and I earnestly hope that the new system adopted under this law may prove satisfactory and successful in every way."

"I understand that under the new law County Boards of Education are to be elected in the state on November 2nd, and I trust that the people of every county will realize the great importance of this election and see to it that the best persons possible to secure for that work shall be elected."

"The success of the law will depend to a very considerable extent upon the character and intelligence of those who make up these county boards."

"There is no more important work in our State than the improvement and development of our schools, and especially the rural schools. I was for three years a teacher in the common schools in this State, and I have which are giving splendid service. A few of the rural districts in Kentucky, have done the same thing for their children, but many counties have been backward in giving the country child a real opportunity for a first-class education because of laws which have permitted the schools to be pulled into local politics."

"It is indeed fortunate that both of the political parties in Kentucky at the last session of the Legislature laid aside all party feeling, got together and passed a group of strong school laws that will remake the rural schools. These new school laws will practically take the County Boards of Education and the County Superintendent out of politics and keep them out of politics if the voters will think of the children when they go to the polls in November."

"Every right thinking man and woman should vote for strong men for the new County Boards of Education. These right thinking people should also urge others to do likewise that every small school shall be developed to serve the children, and in serving the children make the State what it should be in the future."

DON'T SKIMP ON SCHOOLS

Every magazine and newspaper in the land is printing editorials concerning the schools of the nation. The Youth's Companion has the following to say concerning the schools in America:

"The schools of America were founded and maintained by sacrifice; only so can they be preserved. The teacher must be convinced of the value and dignity of his service that he will not lightly abandon it for some occupation that offers more ease or excitement or money. And on the other hand the public must stop being niggardly. It must tax itself more heavily for schools than it has been in the habit of doing, and it must pay salaries that do not degrade the teacher in the eye of the community. Wherever else a county must skip, let it not skip on its schools."

Thirty years ago today Francis E. Warren was inaugurated first state governor of Wyoming. Today is the 48th birthday of Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, wife of the President.

MARKETS A SUBJECT OF THE FARMERS' SHORT COURSE.

Markets and market organizations will come in for special consideration in the short course in agriculture which begins November 1 at the College of Agriculture and continues to February 26. No farmer is equal to cope with the situations that arise annually unless he has the other market man's point of view as well as his own and his judgment will also be guided many times by previous conditions.

The marketing course includes a rapid survey of the general principles and conditions underlying the system of marketing farm products which have developed in the United States and foreign countries. It will include lectures on the fundamental principles of market organizations, their history, growth and present development, together with studies of the types and functions of marketing agencies. The economic value of co-operative organizations and their method of formation will also be studied.

The farm market organization course, which comes the second term, is given as a further development of the course in marketing and is intended for such short course students as are interested in the functions of market organizations. It will deal with the forms of organizations used in the livestock, grain, produce, fruit, dairy and other industries handling farm products.

The short course in agriculture offers many other excellent opportunities and all Kentuckians are eligible to entrance without examination. The work is offered when there is little to be done on the farm and the short time and amount of money expended will be more than well spent on the results obtained.

Marion Leroy Burton, who is to be inaugurated president of the University of Michigan today, has an excellent record as an educator and college administrator, established during the years of service, first as president of Smith College and later as head of the University of Minnesota. Dr. Burton is a native of Iowa, grew up a farmer's boy, and found his way to Minneapolis, where, in a measure he was dependent on self-support. Means were found to send him to Carleton College, where he made a record of fine character and unusual scholastic ability. Then followed a period of teaching, ordination to the ministry, and service on the faculty of the Yale Divinity School. In 1909, while serving as pastor of a Brooklyn church, he was called to the presidency of Smith College, where he continued until 1917, when he was chosen president of the University of Minnesota.

MANY NEW CHAPLAINS

CHOSEN BY THE ARMY

Adjutant General Announces Selection of 89 New Chaplains for the Army Out of 300 Applicants.

Major General P. C. Harris, the Adjutant General of the Army, announces the selection and appointment of 89 new chaplains for the Regular Army out of 300 applicants who had served as officers throughout the war. This is in conformity with the new Reorganization Law, providing for 240 chaplains, or one to each 1,200 officers and men.

All the aspirants have been carefully examined by different boards of officers as to their professional, mental and physical qualifications, and the survivors of this test then carefully looked up from the standpoint of clerical fitness through the various denominational agencies. The clergymen thus selected have been commissioned with rank from July 1, 1920.

After careful study by representatives of the War Department, the proportion of the denominations was tentatively fixed by Secretary of War Baker, at 25 per cent. for the Roman Catholic church, 70 per cent. for the Protestant churches, and five per cent. for adjustments that cannot be made on strictly mathematical apportionment. This conclusion is based on a careful survey on census reports, as well as the religious census of 1916.

In making the announcement, General Harris adds:

"Under the new Reorganization Law full provision has been made for the moral and spiritual training of our enlisted men. A new corps of chaplains has been created. The entire effort will be along the lines of character-building and proper guidance for the young soldiers under their charge, coupled with the new program of education and occupational training for the troops."

GONE FOR GOOD

Results That Last Are What Appeal to Maysville People.

Kidney sufferers in Maysville want more than temporary relief. They want results that last—Results like Mr. Lynch tells about. His was a thorough test. Four years is a long time. Doan's Kidney Pills have stood the test and stood it well. Why experiment with an untried medicine?

People here in Maysville have shown the way. Read the story of W. H. Lynch, shoemaker, E. Third St. He says: "My kidneys were weak and sluggish. At one time the action of my kidneys stopped altogether. I finally used Doan's Kidney Pills and in a short time the action of my kidneys became normal. I kept on taking them and they completely relieved me."

TROUBLE NEVER RETURNED
Nearly five years later, Mr. Lynch said: "I haven't had any need of a kidney remedy since I last recommended Doan's Kidney Pills. They have permanently cured me." Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Lynch had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

AS TRUE AS GOLD VALUE—
Prices may go up and the buying power of a dollar may go down, but "gold remains true" always.

That about explains the situation with good clothes this fall.

A good suit or overcoat must remain a true value no matter the price.

—It demands so much all wool.

—And a certain standard of styling and tailoring and finishing.

You do not judge a good suit or overcoat by the price of it.

—You judge it by the quality in it, the worthiness of it, the service and satisfaction and wear of it.

Which would you rather have us do—offer you a suit deteriorated in value in order to be able to sell it at the old 1914 price of it?

—Or pay what is necessary to maintain the standard of it?

—And offer it to you at the smallest possible price?

Well—there's only one way we serve the public and that is the latter way.

STRONG PROTEST AGAINST PAROLE OF J. W. OSBORNE

Officials and Residents of Springdale Neighborhood Protest Against Parole of Man Who Burned Church.

It has been learned here that an effort is being made by citizens of the Springdale neighborhood and local officials to prevent the paroling from the State Penitentiary of J. Wesley Osborne, who is now serving a six year term in that institution for having burned the Bethany church house in the Springdale neighborhood.

Osborne has served enough of his time to make him eligible for parole. It is understood that the citizens of the Springdale neighborhood especially are anxious that he should serve out his entire time and not be allowed to go free. It is understood that Osborne is alleged to have made certain threats against those who prosecuted him in this case.

It will be remembered that the burning of the Bethany church house and the arrest and conviction of Osborne caused considerable excitement in Mason county.

COLD WEATHER ON WAY WEATHER BUREAU WARNS.

Washington, Oct. 14.—Warning of another cold snap in the northern and middle sections of the country within a few days was given by the Weather Bureau in a special bulletin, which said:

"The indications at this time are that the prolonged spell of exceptionally fine weather over the Middle Western and Western States will shortly end. A disturbance of widespread influence is moving east-south-eastward along the Southern Alaskan coast and its influence will be felt on the Washington and Oregon coast within the next twenty-four or forty-eight hours, where it will be attended by rains and gales. It will cross the Middle West at the end of the week, attended by unsettled weather and rain and with a probability of local snows in the Northwest.

"Following this disturbance, the temperature will fall and the coldest weather of the season up to this time will prevail generally in the northern and middle sections of the country."
